

Grief Resources

Books

Tear Soup

Fall Of Freddy The Leaf

Any Place I Hang My Hat by Susan Isaacs

For adults and adolescents Wally Lamb's Novels

The Loss That Is Forever - Maxine Harris

Non-Specific Trauma and Loss Books

Brave Bart

A Terrible Thing Happened

Ponette - Movie

Radio Show - Sunday Mornings

Speaking of Faith - Christa Tippitt

- interview with Daniel Pearl's widow - available from the Website for the radio program (speakingoffaith.org)

Intermountain Therapy Animals - they can visit hospitals, schools mental health settings. 801-272-3439

Native American Rituals

Poem: Wild Geese

Support Groups

Bereavement Support Group - St. Mark's Hospital (268-7141)
This group runs for 8 weeks about 4 times per year. They do have holiday support coming for November and December. This is open to the community and deals with all loss, except suicide.

Caring Connections - University of Utah (801) 585-9522 support groups for children, adolescents, adults, they also have support groups for suicide and murder. They also have holiday support services, Spanish support groups, and parents who have had a death of a baby.

Compassionate Friends of Bereaved Parents
(801) 265-3623 - information line

Primary Children's Medical Center - Bereavement Services (801) 588-3600
Support groups

Salt Lake Valley Adult Grief Support Group - Cottonwood Hospital Counseling Services (801) 314-2963

Share Parents Of Utah Pregnancy and Infant Loss Support Group
(801) 272-5355

The Sharing Place - Support Group for families and children who are grieving the death of a loved one.
(801) 466-6730

They also have a lending library with books for resources

The National Institute For Trauma And Loss In Children
Grosse Pointe Woods, MI

Internet Resources

www.tcfob.org/grief.htm

www.griefwatch.com

www.webhealing.com

www.psycom.net

www.griefhealing.com

www.grieflink.asn.au

www.indiana.edu/%7Efamilygrf/support/res_prac.html